Every long answer question answered... ever!

Memorise the below phrases to help you understand what the examiners are looking for in the long answer questions.

Remember – never talk about anything they don't ask for!

Melody

- Use of sequence
- Use of repetition
- Long/short phrases
- Phrases of unequal/equal length
- Mixture of stepwise and leaps in both instrumental and vocal sections
- Melody of lines 1&2 repeated for lines 3&4
- Use of accents/corrections
- Rising/falling intervals
- Rising melodic pattern (in octaves)
- Conject/disjunct
- Triadic/pentatonic
- Any written out notation
- Melody is in the bass/left hand/other instrument
- Chromatic runs
- Short rising figure on flute/other instrument

Use of Instruments

- Woodwind (etc.) play the same as the melody line
- Trombone glissando at the end of line 7
- Instruments take over as voices finish
- Bass/strings plucked
- Fast repeated notes on percussion (etc.)
- Drum roll at end

Harmony

- Minor chords mostly
- Includes an interrupted (etc.) cadence
- Modal elements to the harmony
- Major to minor chord progressions
- Ends with a perfect cadence
- Major/minor key
- Diatonic
- Use of pedal/drone

Historiography

- The final two marks are for explaining historians views on the issue.
- This can be a relatively simple sentence explaining how a historian would answer the question.
- For example: 'Antony Beevor argues Britain was not militarily prepared for war in 1939 because she had a severe lack of trained divisions ready to be deployed.'
